Ohakune Old Coach Road - Horopito

Revealed along the way are many surprising and memorable sights – from abandoned railway tunnels and grand viaducts to old bush camps and remnants of the original cobblestone road.

Middle Road & Ruatiti Road

Middle – Ruatiti Road connects Ohakune Old Coach Road and Mangapurua tracks. A Mix of quiet rural gravel and sealed roads, this pathway connects you from The Tongariro National Park Mountains and take's you around the Erua forest and into the edge of the Whanganui National Park. Tracing the edge of the Mangaonui o Te Ao River, traversing through remote sheep and beef farms with Splendid Views of Mt Ruapehu.

Mangapurua Track

One of Aotearoa - New Zealand's iconic rides. Journey back in time through a remote, long-deserted valley to the mystical Whanganui River.

Take in stunning mountain vistas and discover WW1 heritage sites. Descend through the Whanganui National Park passing reclaimed farms, native forest, dramatic bluffs, deep ravines before crossing the Bridge to nowhere, a graceful monument to early settlers' broken dreams. The Jetboat ride to Pipiriki is an invigorating way to end this wilder adventure.

Whanganui River Road

Following the Whanganui River as it flows towards the sea, this peaceful road blends sublime scenery with a series of delightful heritage sites, both Māori and European. Starting at Pīpīriki – gateway to Whanganui National Park – this long but leisurely ride undulates through small settlements perched high above the mighty river. A beautiful marae, notable church and convent, charming old flour mill, and other special sights tell their stories.

Upokongaro to the Tasman Sea

A fitting finale to the Mountains to Sea. The trail winds beside the lower reaches of the Whanganui River and through the artful city of Whanganui before reaching the Tasman Sea. From Upokongaro village this flat, easy trail follows the river to Whanganui's city limits where it continues on cycle paths, suburban streets, and pretty riverside boardwalk through the centre brimming with galleries, street art, cafes and more.

The final stretch heads through salt-tinged backstreets on its way to North Mole - Castlecliff – a moody, driftwood-strewn beach where this epic journey ends.
